The Lion's Tale

Billerica Lions Club
Serving Billerica since 1957

Speech Contest

The Billerica Lions are preparing for this year Speech Contest.

This is an important event for us. This helps the Lions connect with the community and the Youth.

Lion Joan Parcewski is the chairperson for this committee. It is tentatively scheduled for 11/4 at 7pm - location Selectman's meeting room.

We need 2 more non Lions to judge. We will also be looking for tellers, proofreaders, timer, talliers and as many participants as possible.

Peace Poster Contest

Information on the Peace Poster Contest will be forth coming.

Please contact Lion Joan Parcewski who is the chair person if you are interested

Culinary Adventures

The Next Culinary Adventure is to Toboca's Steak House.

Please call Mike Kiskiel if you want to go at 978-453-7429

This is the opposite of the last Adventure which was purely vegetarian.

This is Brazilian Barbeque and if you ever wanted to try it this is the Time.

Toboca's is located at 26 Andover Street Lowell, Ma 01851 and it will cost $22 per person.

Comedy Show Fund Raiser

The Billerica Lions Comedy night was a great time had by all.

participated in the raffle; as a result,

The food and the entertainment were good.

The club made a profit of $400.00. This is just the beginning on this type of entertainment for the Billerica Lions.

We had 71 guests attend the comedy night, and 40 guests

New Meeting Site

The New/Old Meeting Site seem to be a success so far.

There is plenty of space for us, the parking is easy and the Steak Tips were tasty.

Newsletter

The Newsletter looks much better with pictures, and I have gotten better with using them since my last stint as newsletter editor.

So everyone please send me pictures to add to the Newsletter
